From his many ITV and BBC series to The Royal Variety Performance, radio and continued theatrical successes, Jimmy is one of the best-loved and busiest comedians there is. Jimmy is always in constant demand and recently enjoyed yet another smash hit season at home and abroad, and looks forward to joining us on this very special Easter Cruise.

Syd Little

Syd Little is a true comedy legend having just celebrated 50 years in the profession as part of one of the nation's best-loved double acts, Little & Large. Recently featured on BBC's The Real Marigold Hotel series, Masterchef, ITV's prime-time Ant & Dec's Takeaway, Cash in the Attic, Big Brother and Granada TV's Trust Me I'm A Holiday Rep, Syd also tours his one-man show in which he celebrates his comedy and musical heroes. Syd remains a truly remarkable veteran of stage and screen who entertained a whole generation with a 14-year primetime slot on the BBC, and as well as his autobiography, Little by Little, his laughter book, A Little Heavenly Humour remains a best seller.

Sue Hodge

Sue Hodge is well known as 'Allo 'Allo's Mimi Labonq which ran for many years on the BBC, and is still seen in 72 countries including the UK. The stage show took Sue from England to New Zealand and Australia, then on to the London Palladium for 6 months. Sue has worked on many other classic plays and comedies which have taken her around the world as well as London's West-End. As well as her Pantomime appearances, Sue tours her own show, Mimi and Me, and will be offering passengers a chance to be part of a special afternoon concert version of Godspell with her husband MD Keith 'Paddington' Richards.

Lloyd Notice

Lloyd Notice enjoys a distinguished career from London's West-End to the Royal Shakespeare Company. He played the principle role of Mufasa in Disney's ground-breaking production of The Lion King at London's Lyceum Theatre where he fell off a cliff at every performance! His other star roles include Othello in New York and Pip in Moby Dick for the RSC. Numerous TV and Radio appearances compliment his one-man show Taken, based on the Gospel of Mark. Lloyd loves working in Pantomime and his recent roles include alongside David Essex in Robinson Crusoe and, thrilled to be the 'baddie', has spent the last few years playing either Abanazar or The Sherriff of Nottingham. His wife, Clarissa, is a vicar.

Reverend Dr Colin Beevers

Before being ordained in Hereford Cathedral in 1989, Colin spent 25 years with Shell International as an engineering and business manager. He and his wife Ann lived abroad for many years, in Canada, the Middle East and Holland. They have 3 children and 8 grandchildren. Colin was Assistant Director of Training for Hereford Diocese between 1993 and 1996, and Team Rector and Rural Dean of Ledbury from 1996 until he retired in 2005. Between 2005 and 2015 he was Assistant Priest at St. George's Church, Worcester, covering two interregnums, and chair of Governors of the church primary school. He is now an Honorary Assistant Priest at Great Malvern Priory, and a Day Chaplain at Worcester Cathedral. Since retiring, he and Ann have been chaplain on a number of P&O and Fred Olsen Cruises, including Balmoral's World Cruise in 2014, and most recently on Thomson Dream. Colin's interests include music and choral singing, theatre, sailing, and working as a volunteer on a heritage railway.

Cindy Kent MBE

Cindy Kent MBE is well known as lead singer with The Settlers, the UK's leading 60's pop-folk group and travelled the world with songs such as The Lightning Tree and was respected for its hit covers of Beatles songs. A six-month residency on the BBC series, Singalong, led to tours with Dusty Springfield, Roy Orbison and The Small Faces. Cindy left the band in 1973 to join Radio 4, Radio 2, and Radio 1, later becoming a broadcaster on London's first legal commercial radio stations, LBC, Capital Radio and Premier Radio. In 2008 Cindy was ordained as a priest, and was awarded the MBE for services to broadcasting in the Queen's 90th Birthday Honours List.

Chris Gidney

Chris Gidney is your host for the themed cruise and has spent a lifetime as an entertainer, producer and author, working with numerous artistes from the legendary Frank Sinatra to Sir Cliff Richard. Chris joined London's West-End in 1980 to enjoy twelve consecutive London productions before moving to the BBC, and has authored 28 commercially published books and six Pantomimes, as well as articles and scripts for the BBC and national press. As a freelance Producer, Chris is responsible for a number of unique stage, television and radio productions and has enjoyed creating and producing over forty themed cruises which have taken him around the world. When back on land, Chris looks forward to producing several stage tours alongside his various Pantomimes and continuing as founder-director of showbiz charity CIE, which this year celebrates 40 years of supporting those in the entertainment profession.

"I am thrilled to be presenting and interviewing some talented performers on this special Easter cruise," says Chris. "I know that we shall have a lot of fun enjoying their performances as well as hearing all about their careers in the showbiz spotlight and what inspires them personally. As part of our Easter celebrations there will be some extra surprises along the way and with many opportunities to meet as a unique family as Rev Colin and Rev Cindy encourage us to celebrate and enjoy this special Easter journey aboard Ambience."

CRUISE DETAILS

Easter British Isles Discovery

11 nights from £869pp

Sailing date:

Monday 3rd April 2023 - A12305

A voyage of discovery taking in the incredible diversity of the British coastline.

With a whole world to discover, it's all too easy to forget the treasures we have right on our doorstep. Allow us to remind you with an itinerary that strays far from the tourist trail and shines some light onto the most fascinating corners of our diverse nation. Focusing on Britain's many beautiful islands, we will take you from the tranquillity of Tobermory in Mull, with its charming rainbow-hued buildings, to the quaint capital of St. Peter Port in Guernsey, where England meets France amid a picture-postcard landscape.

Portree, Isle of Skye

You'll believe you've entered a Tolkienesque fantasy landscape when you see Skye's surreal crags and peaks – but you'll be sure of a warm welcome from the down-to-earth locals in the capital of Portree.

Tobermory, Isle of Mull

The colourful houses of Tobermory are picture-perfect, resembling a contented child's view of the world. You may even imagine you're dreaming, but your eyes will open wide at the stunning surrounding scenery.

St. Mary's, Isles of Scilly

The Scilly Isles are a subtropical paradise off the coast of Cornwall. Little more than six square miles, St Mary's is the largest, with an atmosphere unlike anything you'll experience on the mainland.

St. Peter Port, Guernsey

Quainter and more unspoilt than its near-neighbour St. Helier, St. Peter Port is part-Francophile fishing port, part-bustling capital – and a playground for the wealthy, who know a good thing when they see it.

INTRODUCING AMBIENCE

Here she is, our flagship of the fleet, our first lady of the sea: Ambience. Derived from the French word for ‘surrounding’, our ambition at Ambassador is to create the optimum atmosphere on board; one that brings out the best in each of us. The perfect ambience.

With an average 1,400-guest capacity and careful configuration, she offers both a feeling of spaciousness and freedom, whilst retaining that sense of intimacy and camaraderie we each crave; it’s whatever makes you comfortable.

Entertainment-wise, she really will spoil you for choice. Let your hair down at the Observatory and bring out your finest ensembles for The Palladium. Whether you like it shaken or stirred, she has numerous bars to whet your whistle, including Raffles Bar, Botanical Lounge, SW19 and The Purple Turtle Pub.

Dining options are plentiful at our Buckingham restaurant or the Borough Market, with plentiful cuisine options, and for those wanting to soak in nature’s glory, we have our glorious Alfresco Grill. Wining and dining are more than fine at Saffron*, Sea & Grass* or our deluxe Chef’s Table*, where we offer a speciality gastronomic experience that’s not to be missed.

Put your best cards forward at Aces & Eights bridge and card room and the Ambassador Casino, or revive and renew at the gym and Wellness Centre. Other facilities include Kapoor’s, our on board crafting studio, Brontë’s library, the shopping galleria, not to mention two swimming pools, four hot tubs and a large screen for outdoor movies. Sound good?

Ambience’s maiden season commences 6th April 2022 to Hamburg from London Tilbury.
